

TOMAHAWK

Dedication

To our parents who have stood by us and sacrificed for us all our lives, who have always had faith in us and encouraged us to this, our graduation hour; we, the Senior Class of Selma, dedicate this 1954 annual, "The Tomahawk".

Class Will

We, the Seniors of Selma High School, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-four, in the City of Selma, State of Iowa, being sound in mind and memory do make, publish, and declare this as our Last Will and Testament, in manner and form as follow:

We will to the Juniors, the last row of seats in the assembly with the right to gaze out the windows. We will to you, all our unfinished business and debts to do with as you see fit. We will to you, our battered books and all the notes we wrote in them hoping they would help you. [Learn more from them than we did.]

We will our ability to persuade the teachers to our point of view, to the Sophomores. [Have more luck than we did.]

We will to the Freshmen, the courage to face all the hardships and F's to come. [Did we help to prepare you during initiation?]

We will to the Faculty, the peace and quiet after our departure. [I hope you're not retiring after this year.]

Vivian Oliver wills her ability to study to the eighth grade. [Hope you get as far with it as she did.]

Ritzanna Kunzman wills her place as last in the line to dinner to Otis Baker. [Don't take it away from him, Bo.]

Steve Buffo wills his popularity with the girls to Leland Waugh. Don't leave too many broken hearts.]

Mary Jo Hanna wills her ability to stay slim and trim to Jesse Mae Baker. [Get the diet from Mary Jo, Jesse Mae.]

Robert Fiedler wills his ability to clean house, shown by pushing a dust mop after school, to Evelyn Madden. [You know how by now don't you, Evelyn? [Or wasn't that why you usually stayed after school?]]

Ritzanna and Steve will their ability to argue over politics to Arden Hughes and Dixie Swain. [Choose your own party.]

And last but not least, to the school as a whole, to the superintendents, high school teachers, grade school teachers, basketball coaches, janitors, bus drivers, cooks, and the people of the community, who have helped us in every way possible, we will our thanks and appreciation.

Signed:

Vivian Oliver Robert Fiedler
Mary Jo Hanna Ritzanna Kunzman Steve Buffo

Senior Class Poem

We, the graduates of '54
As we launch out from this shore,
Bid our schoolmates and teachers good-bye,
With perhaps a suppressed tear or sigh.
For we shall hold many memories dear,
Of the friends made during each year.

To this school of Selma High
We shall be known as alumni.
And to us these halls of fame
Will never seem quite the same,
As when here we worked and played,
While many facts were learned and weighed.

The motto, "Quality not Quantity",
Ours in the present and future shall be.
We are few in quantity.
There are only five of us you see.
Just Steve and Ritzanna on the alert
With Mary Jo, Vivian, and Robert.

But no matter how much work needs done,
Each task we'll try to do and not shun,
That our life and work may never fade
From the best in quality and grade.
And to you readers we say this one thing more,
We wish you the best of everything in store.

-by Vivian Oliver

Class Prophecy

Spokane, Washington
July 10, 1985

Dear Ritzanna,

My, you sure have a grand job - journalist for the New York Times. I know you are enjoying your work, especially with this new assignment of writing the history of the Republican Party. Remember back in school when you were a strict Democrat. You always said you would never go Republican.

Right now I am on a vacation, as you can tell by the heading. I said I always wanted to go back to Spokane, and I finally made it. My occupation is being an old maid school-teacher. I teach primary and first grade in the Fairfield School System.

By the way, I don't believe you have heard the latest news. My hair was badly in need of a shampoo, so I picked a beauty salon at random. Quite by accident I picked the one owned and operated by our old classmate, Robert Fiedler. It turned out that he had been to Paris to learn his trade, and he married a French girl. He told me that he was very happy and that they had three children.

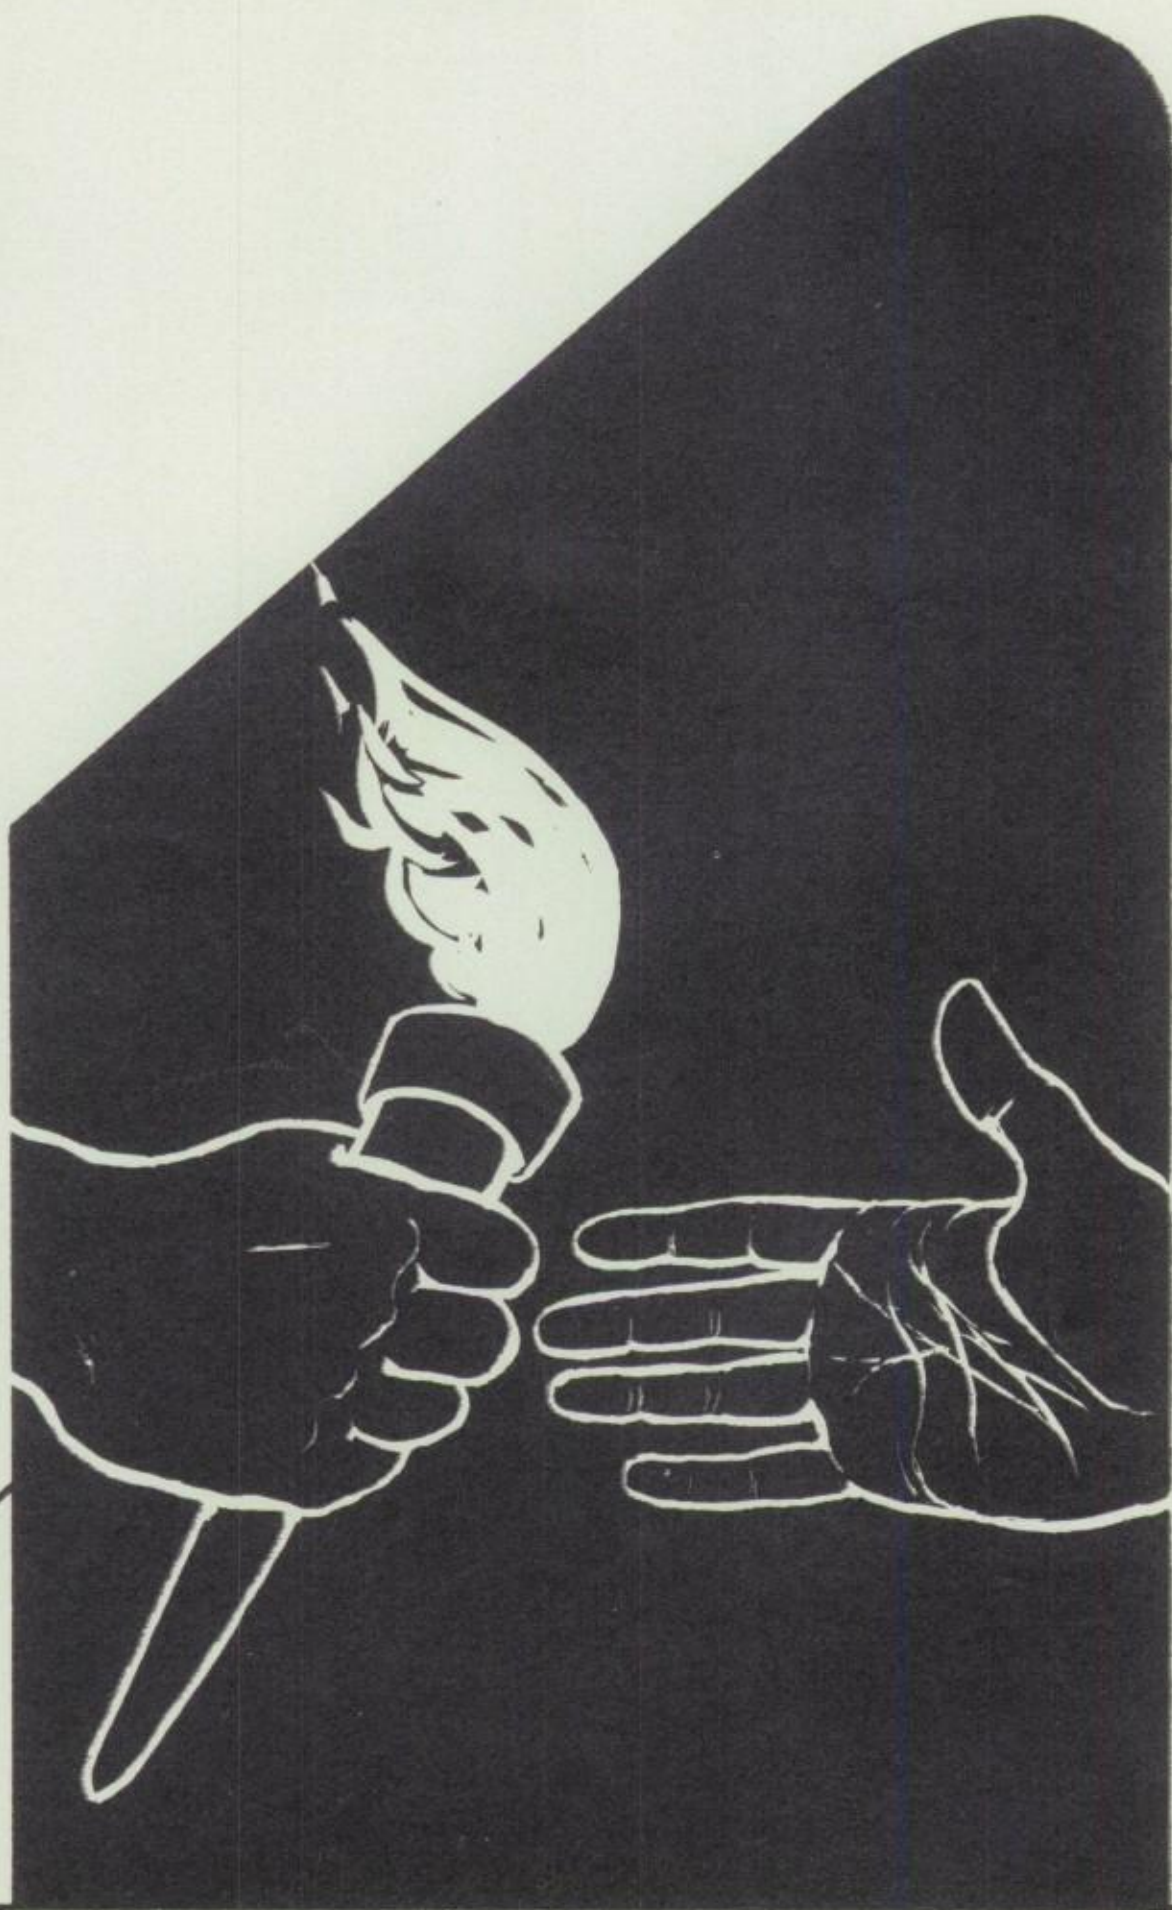

I picked up the paper the other morning, and I found that new would-be-crooner, Steve Buffo, staring me in the face. His latest song is out, "Too Young to Slice the Catsup." He also won first prize for a new invention. It is a master push button that pushes all the little push buttons. As you can see, he is a modern version "Jack of all trades."

I had a letter from Vivian last week. She is a missionary in Africa right now. However, she is to be transferred to Brazil in a few months. You probably know that she was a prominent figure in the recent magazine article, "How to Reform Savages."

Well, it is getting late and I must get my needed beauty sleep. A few wrinkles are appearing you know.

An old classmate,

Mary Jo Hanna

3. Posing
4. Tall and short of it
5. Sophomore English
6. Our janitor
7. Glamour girls
8. Cramming
9. Startled
10. Don't rush---plenty to eat
11. Basketball supper at church

Humor

Mrs. Alliston to Mr. Alliston: "I didn't say there weren't two sides to every story -----
I just said I wasn't listening to your side."

Back-fence gossip to neighbor: "Listen carefully, because I can only tell this once----
I promised not to repeat it."

A hearse is a poor vehicle to start going to church in.

The world's largest fish has not yet been caught. But it has been temporarily at the end of many fishermen's line.

Ritzanna to Jessie Mae: "Will you look how close that maniac is driving ahead of me?"

It is often surprising to find that heights may be attained merely by remaining on the level.

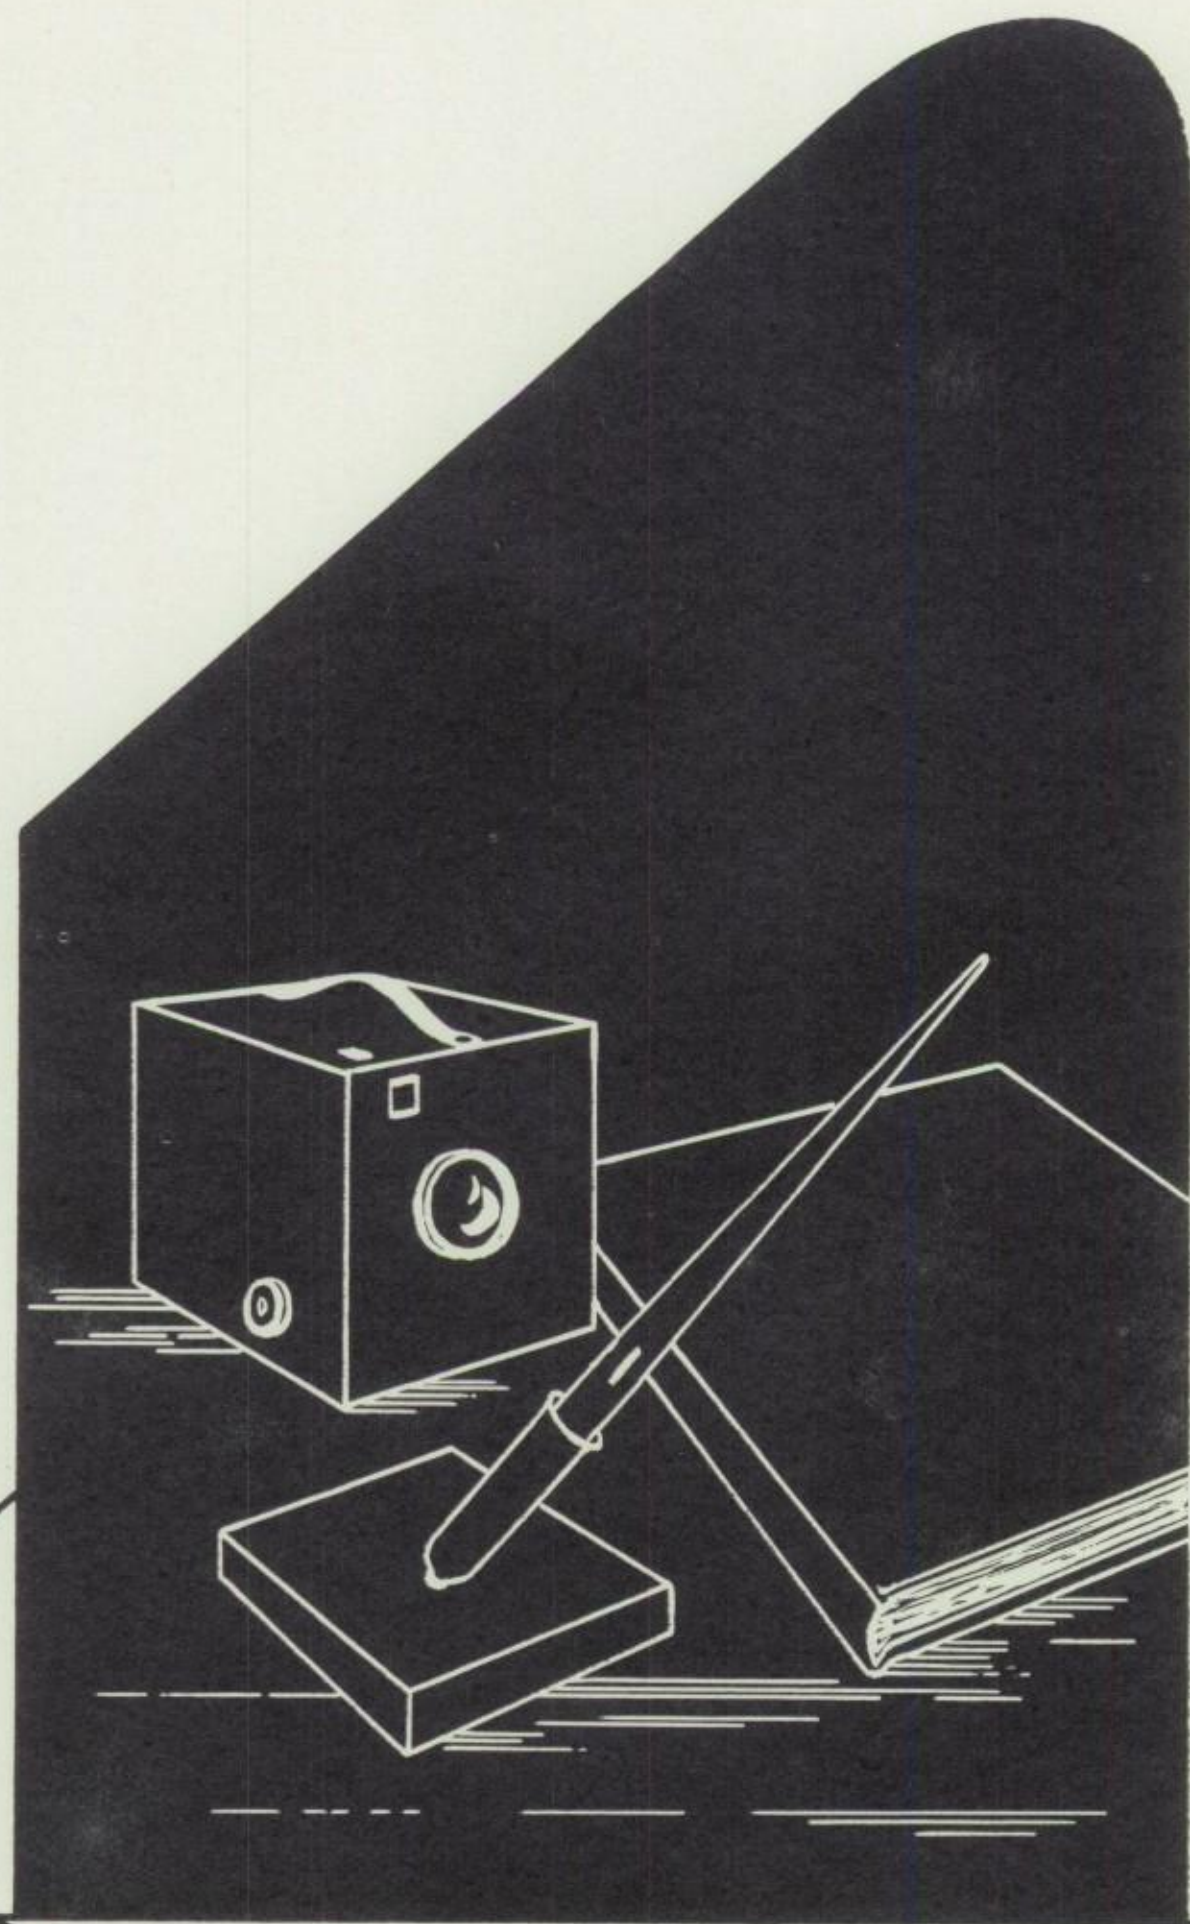

DISCUSSION: An argument is where you just keep talking and you don't throw anything.

From an Illinois newspaper classified section----

"For Sale: One cow giving milk, clover hay, corn, 2 bushels lima beans, heating stove, some house doors, and windows.

When the municipal clerk of a certain Canadian city went on a vacation, he left the following sign prominently displayed on his office door:

For registration of births and deaths see Dr. Barr.
For auto and truck licenses go to Saint Rose.
For municipal business see Reeve Fletch.
For marriage licenses ---- think it over carefully and come back again in ten days.
